JOINT INTELLIGENCE COMMITTEE

BASIC DIRECTIVE FOR THE JOINT INTELLIGENCE STUDY PUBLISHING
BOARD (J.I.S.P.B.)

Memorandum by the Joint Intelligence Staff

1. The enclosure, a report by the Joint Topographical Subcommittee, recommends a new basic directive for the J.I.S.P.B. The new basic directive is occasioned by the discontinuance of the Office of Strategic Services and other events since V-J Day.

2. The Joint Intelligence Staff believes that it is inappropriate, as contemplated in paragraph 6, line 7 of the Appendix to the Enclosure, for the Joint Topographical Subcommittee to determine the complement to be furnished to the J.I.S.P.B. by the various agencies, but that the J.I.C. should determine such complements. Otherwise, the recommendation in the Enclosure appears appropriate and necessary.

3. Recommendation: That the Joint Intelligence Committee approve the recommendation in paragraph 7 of the Enclosure, subject to the substitution in paragraph 6, line 7 of the Appendix thereto, of "J.I.C." for "J.T.S.".

BASIC DIRECTIVE FOR THE JOINT INTELLIGENCE
STUDY PUBLISHING BOARD (J.I.S.P.B.)

Report by the Joint Topographical Subcommittee

THE PROBLEM

1. To revise the basic directive of the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board (J.I.S.P.B.).

FACTS BEARING ON THE PROBLEM

2. The basic directive of J.I.S.P.B. provides for participation by the Office of Strategic Services (1) on the membership of the Board and (2) in the working organization or staff of J.I.S.P.B. In addition to this participation at Board level, the Office of Strategic Services has contributed the following chapters (entire) to JANIS:

Chapter VII	-	Transportation and Telecommunications
Chapter VIII	-	Cities and Towns
Chapter IX	-	Resources and Trade
Chapter X	-	People and Government

3. Upon the discontinuance of the Office of Strategic Services, O.S.S. sections contributing to JANIS and O.S.S. personnel serving on J.I.S.P.B. and on the working organization thereof were transferred to the Interim Research Intelligence Service, Department of State.

4. Former O.S.S. personnel, now of the Department of State, are continuing to perform duties as assigned personnel of the J.I.S.P.B. and its working staff. Although responsibility for JANIS Chapters VII, VIII, and IX has been transferred to the military services, former O.S.S. sections in the Department of State continue to prepare the material for Chapter X, "People and Government", and to provide some sections of Chapter XV, "Map Appraisal", as heretofore.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

5. It is desirable to insure the continued participation on the J.I.S.P.B. and on its working staff of former O.S.S. personnel now attached to the Department of State, and the basic directive of the J.I.S.P.B. should be amended accordingly.

6. Since V-J Day the 5-man Board has not been quartered together. Most of the present Board members have primary duty elsewhere and serve the Board in an advisory capacity only when called upon. Since by basic directive the J.I.S.P.B. functions under general direction of the Joint Topographical Subcommittee, it is believed desirable to continue the 5-man Board as heretofore but to fill Board positions insofar as possible with the members now representing their respective agencies on the J.T.S.

RECOMMENDATION

7. That the Joint Intelligence Committee approve the appended basic directive of the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board, amended as indicated.
